Event Summary:

P Meyer Gallery presents an exhibition of prints, drawings and sculpture by two San Diego artists, Joe Nyiri and the late Barney M. Reid. The exhibition will be available for viewing beginning Friday, July 10th, 2009 through Saturday, August 22, 2009.

The opening reception for this significant exhibition will take place on Friday, July 10, 2009, from 5:00 – 9:00 p.m., in conjunction with Kettner Nights presented by galleries and artists of the art and design district of north Little Italy (NoLI).

Perry L. Meyer has been a private art dealer for 30 years, specializing in original graphics, limited edition prints, and other works on paper from the 18th century to contemporary works. With a keen eye and knowledge that he has acquired through his life-long love and passion for graphics and works on paper, Perry Meyer opened a public gallery space in June 2006, located in the booming art and design district in Little Italy in the historical Studio Arts Building on Kettner Blvd.

Exhibition Details:

This exhibition, the first for Reid since 1992, will consist primarily of prints (lithographs, linocuts and etchings), complimented by drawings and sculptures. Many of Reid's featured prints are from the 1930's and 40's, created while he was working on his master's thesis at the University of Iowa, under the tutelage of Grant Wood and Fletcher Martin. His works from 1946-1949 were created when he was teaching at Arizona State University (ASU). Barney Reid lived in San Diego from 1950 until he died in 1992.

Joe Nyiri resides in San Diego. – write more on Joe.
